- Internal Revenue Code Section 1035 and associated rules are complex in nature. The policy owner may incur surrender charges from the previous policy, be subject to new sales and surrender charges and other limitations with the new policy. It is highly recommended that the policy owner consult a tax advisor prior to exchanging a policy.
 Subject to the policy's terms and conditions.
- ⁴ A change in the policy will not be permitted if the change would result in the policy not meeting the definition of life insurance under Section 7702 of the Internal Revenue Code. The policy owner should consult a tax advisor to determine the effect of these provisions.
- ⁵ The reduction in specified amount will be subject to the same guidelines and restrictions as outlined in the policy form and resulting death benefit amount must be no less than $90,000.
- ⁶ Except in Florida where internal rollover money is not protected from premium load.
- Policy loans and partial withdrawals will reduce the death benefit and cash value and could reduce the duration of coverage. Partial withdrawals may be taxed as regular earnings. The policy owner should consult a tax advisor to determine the effect of these provisions.
- 8 See the riders for complete details. Not all riders are available in all states. There may be a charge for each rider selected. Adding or deleting riders and increasing or decreasing coverage under existing riders can have tax consequences. Policy owners should consult a tax advisor prior to exchanging their policy.
- IRS caps the maximum daily rate each year. Subsequent years may be higher.
